

Join us for the

2024 NATIONAL FALL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE!

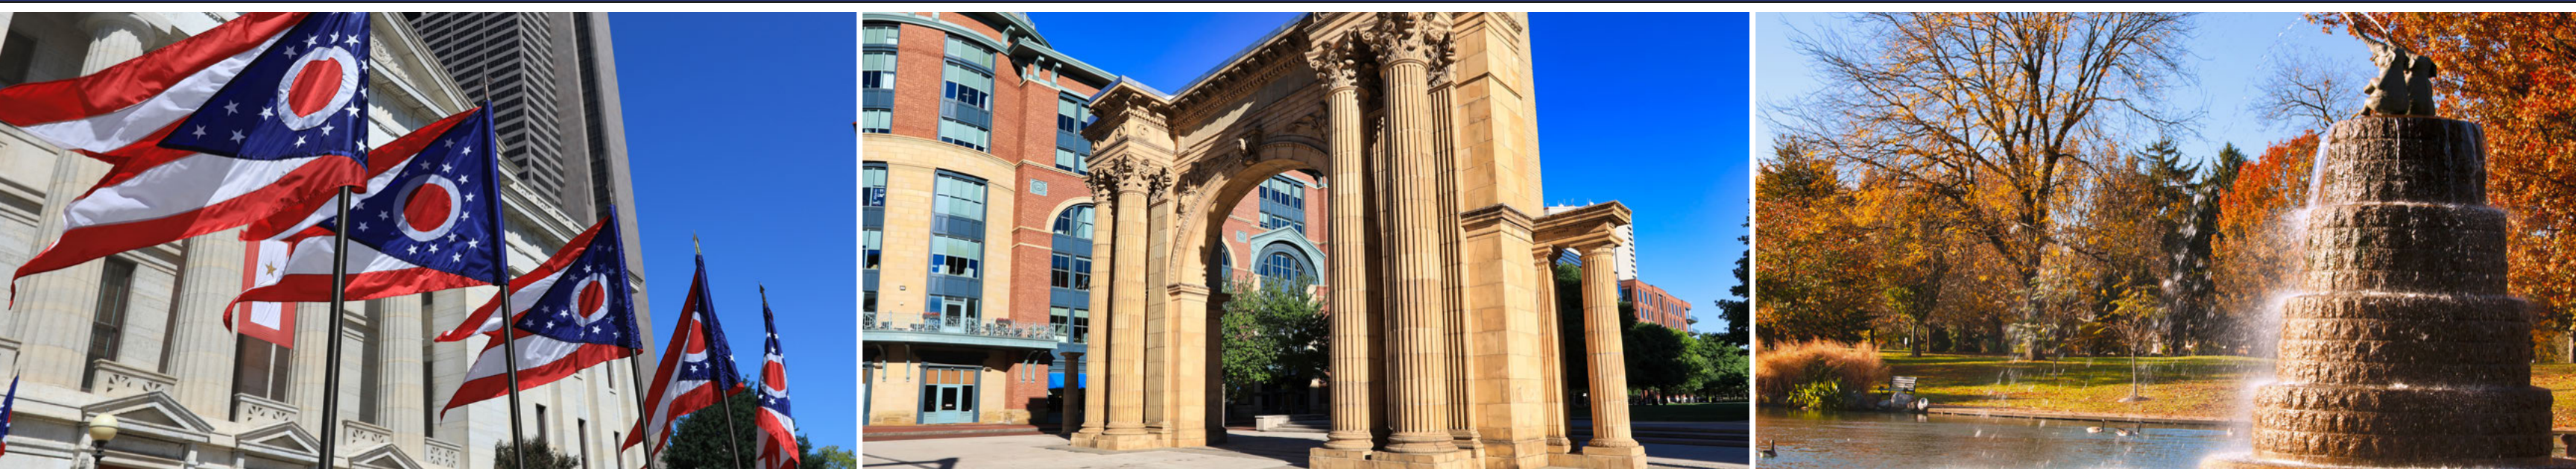

November 8-9 • Columbus, Ohio

A wide-angle photograph of the Columbus, Ohio skyline at dusk. The city's skyscrapers are illuminated, and their lights reflect on the water of the Scioto River. A large, multi-arched bridge spans the river in the foreground. The sky is a mix of blue and orange from the setting sun.

Save the date for the NFLC and explore your potential at this must-attend event!

- Build your leadership skills through interactive workshops
- Meet college and university representatives and tour a local college
- New! Test your knowledge in an open event and earn national recognition
- Network with other FBLA members from across the country
- Explore a new city and create lasting memories

The National Fall Leadership Conference is an opportunity for Middle School and High School members to develop both personally and professionally by participating in motivational general sessions, professional development workshops, and networking with like-minded students from around the country.
